Growing Together: Every Day In Every Way

Percussionist Visit

The children of reception, years one and two had a real musical treat on Monday. Professional percussionist, Dominic Sales, visited the school to show the children some of his collection of tuned and untuned percussion instruments from around the world.

Dom taught the children a traditional African welcome song, Funga Alafia. He then wowed the children with a marimba performance, playing first with two and then four mallets (sticks)! To finish, he played the drum kit with the children singing Grand Old Duke of York.

The children were really excited and inspired by the visit and we look forward to further explorations of percussion in our music lessons.

Please see our website for more photos!

International Women's Day!

Last week was a very busy one for us in school and you have seen some of the wonderful things we did for World Book Day already. We spent the week thinking about International Women's Day which was on Wednesday 8th March. In our special assembly we thought about, and celebrated, women's achievements and discovered why it is important to raise awareness about discrimination and to take action to drive equality.

In our assembly some of the children talked about women who are an inspiration to them. Here are just three of the women that they talked about and why...

Rosa Parks

"She has inspired me to be strong and to stand up for myself."

Mrs Beck

"She has inspired me to sing."

Queen Elizabeth II

"She did so much for our country."

Three members of staff thought about women who have inspired them. Each week we will ask three more members of staff to nominate their inspirational women, so keep a look out for the women they choose.

Mr Morgan – Leah Williamson
(Arsenal Women and England Lioness)

Mrs Mehmet – Maya Angelou
(Author, Poet and civil rights activist)

Miss Pullen – Kristen Bell
(US Actress, voiced Anna in Frozen)

Mr Morgan - "Leah captained England when they won the Euros and has been campaigning for girls to have the same access to football in schools as boys."

Mrs Mehmet's favourite quote from Maya is "Do the best you can until you know better. Then when you know better, do better."

Miss Pullen - "Kristen Bell is an inspirational woman because she is open and honest about her struggles with anxiety and depression, and she uses her platform to tear down the stigmas surrounding mental health, letting everyone know that it is okay to not be okay sometimes."

Who would you pick as an inspirational woman for you? A special auntie, mum, scientist, doctor, engineer, writer, artist or a friend? Have a think and let us know in school.
